Pontiac Model 1950

Widely Announced

To announce its 1950 models Pontiac Motor Division has embarked upon the largest new car advertising campaign in its history, according to Urban Felsing of Coastal Truck and Equipment, local dealer of the Pontiac line.

"But for Dollar You Can't Beat a Pontiac," is the 1950 Pontiac slogan, and the Christmas holidays with their emphasis on gifts, is the best time to see the new cars.

A heavy newspaper follow-up campaign is scheduled. Pontiac announcements were carried by 1001 radio stations in 880 cities and over 48 television outlets, probably the most concentrated use of these media by an automobile manufacturer.

Seventeen national magazines with a combined readership of twenty-seven millions, will carry Pontiac announcements and advertisements. Full color spreads will be used in the Saturday Evening Post, Life and Collier's. Their magazines will carry full-color single pages.

UNEMPLOYED ARE (Continued from page 1) ports: "We have had vacancies in groups since the first, some are still leaving; some are scattering to other parts of Florida and some are returning home for the holidays to return here as soon as the winter harvest of leaf crops, celery, etc., is ready. Actual suffering and want for food and clothing are not serious in Belle Glade. Individual cases have been taken care of by the negroes themselves in the instances and by organizations of the churches and others."

W. C. Taylor, outstanding Negro Boy Scout Executive, Puntaleno, Fla., said: "We have had more than 3,000 people last year, throughout the nation, and to 88 right here in Florida."

PAR-TEE LINE (Continued from page 1) balls. Low net scores and one strike. The golfer shooting the highest score wins a hat. Each member of the winning team determined by Army Handicap, wins three golf balls each.

Course Record Prize—Any lady breaking the course record of 71 will receive $25 in merchandise.

Buffet Dinner After Tourney—At the usual Pot Luck dinner held Sunday evenings has been called off, a Buffet Dinner will take its place and pots to salad, baked beans, cold cutlets, coffee, and dessert will be served by the ladies.

This promises to be one of the big events of the year and hundreds of accompanying wives will find entertainment at the club house while the ladies are scrambling for prizes. Sandwiches will be served by the Elks lodge committee.

Starter-Judges—Lou Betzner will serve as starter and referee of the meet. Other members of the golf club will assist in detail work to make things run smoothly and comfortably. Some 40 golfers are expected from Southern Florida Sunday to make this one of the biggest events of the year. Bob Muller states that considerable travel has been shown to date and he expects a record Put.

No Pot Luck Sunday—Substituting for this regular event will be the Buffet Dinner prepared by the Elks Lodge for the participating golfers.

School News By Doris Matheson "B" Club At a regular meeting of the "B" Club Monday night, as a wind up of football season Led Burke was elected Captain of the Year.

The "B" Club passed new laws holding themselves responsible for the prevention of using firecrackers around the school. (Those going off in the library Monday night did create some excitement.)

Once again plans are under way for a New Year's Dance this year. This dance will also celebrate the second anniversary of the organization.

The second week in January is approximately when these lucky guys expect to receive their letters for their outstanding sportsmanship. Minor letters will be awarded to those who didn't quite make the list.

Highlights of Band Have you noticed the band members parading through the halls in their new white sweaters? Several of them have worn emblems of blue with a gold star head and bearing the inscription "Belle Glade High School Band" on a sleeve, and they are eagerly awaiting the arrival of their letters.

Monday, another honor was bestowed upon the band when they received an invitation from the Florida Band Association to attend and participate in the performance during the Orange Bowl Game on New Year's Day. They will be in Miami for the big annual celebration on Saturday, December 31 and on Monday, January 2. Even though this means more traveling, there seems to be no complaint. The Belle Glade High School Band marches ahead.

M. A. Dance Plans are getting into full swing for the holiday dance to be held in the gym on December 16. Committees were appointed at a meeting of the F.H.A. during sixth period Tuesday and they are:

Bids for the beautiful cake began at two cents and rose rapidly. At one time, the bidders came so determined to subside one that they had the auctioneer pushed into a corner. Warning Made Against Careless Driving During Holiday Season

"Don't let death take your holiday!"

This was the warning issued today by Director H. N. Kirkman as the Florida Highway Patrol opened its December traffic safety program.

"Too many people either do not stop, or will not, at the Christmas holidays with their emphasis on gifts as grim as death," Kirkman said. "And yet this month's death rate is consistently high last year, our State Accident Records Bureau tells us, more than 88 motorists and pedestrians died in Florida in December alone."

The Florida Highway Patrol is emphasizing the subject of holiday hazards during December in cooperation with the National Safety Council. This program is being over-timed in Florida by the Florida Department of Public Safety.

Kirkman pointed out that December, last year, again successfully defended its title as the deadliest month of the year. Both pedestrian and motorist fatalities were higher at that time than at any other time of the year.

"A lot of things go into the making of a holiday accident," Kirkman said. "Heavier traffic, low visibility, fogged windshields, more drinking drivers, and long hours of darkness that cover the peak hours of traffic every day the factors chief of the patrol responsible for such a high fatality rate."

Maintenance of windshield wiper and brakes, slower speeds, and abstinence from alcohol before and while driving are preventive measures urged by the Florida Highway Patrol.

"Don't Let Death Take Your Holiday, is more than a slogan," Kirkman said. "Remember—that very thing happened more than 3,000 people last year, throughout the nation, and to 88 right here in Florida."

Warning Made Against Careless Driving During Holiday Season

"Don't let death take your holiday!"

This was the warning issued today by Director H. N. Kirkman as the Florida Highway Patrol opened its December traffic safety program.

"Too many people either do not stop, or will not, at the Christmas holidays with their emphasis on gifts as grim as death," Kirkman said. "And yet this month's death rate is consistently high last year, our State Accident Records Bureau tells us, more than 88 motorists and pedestrians died in Florida in December alone."

The Florida Highway Patrol is emphasizing the subject of holiday hazards during December in cooperation with the National Safety Council. This program is being over-timed in Florida by the Florida Department of Public Safety.

Kirkman pointed out that December, last year, again successfully defended its title as the deadliest month of the year. Both pedestrian and motorist fatalities were higher at that time than at any other time of the year.

"A lot of things go into the making of a holiday accident," Kirkman said. "Heavier traffic, low visibility, fogged windshields, more drinking drivers, and long hours of darkness that cover the peak hours of traffic every day the factors chief of the patrol responsible for such a high fatality rate."

Maintenance of windshield wiper and brakes, slower speeds, and abstinence from alcohol before and while driving are preventive measures urged by the Florida Highway Patrol.

"Don't Let Death Take Your Holiday, is more than a slogan," Kirkman said. "Remember—that very thing happened more than 3,000 people last year, throughout the nation, and to 88 right here in Florida."

PAR-TEE LINE (Continued from page 1) balls. Low net scores and one strike. The golfer shooting the highest score wins a hat. Each member of the winning team determined by Army Handicap, wins three golf balls each.

Course Record Prize—Any lady breaking the course record of 71 will receive $25 in merchandise.

Buffet Dinner After Tourney—At the usual Pot Luck dinner held Sunday evenings has been called off, a Buffet Dinner will take its place and pots to salad, baked beans, cold cutlets, coffee, and dessert will be served by the ladies.

This promises to be one of the big events of the year and hundreds of accompanying wives will find entertainment at the club house while the ladies are scrambling for prizes. Sandwiches will be served by the Elks lodge committee.

Starter-Judges—Lou Betzner will serve as starter and referee of the meet. Other members of the golf club will assist in detail work to make things run smoothly and comfortably. Some 40 golfers are expected from Southern Florida Sunday to make this one of the biggest events of the year. Bob Muller states that considerable travel has been shown to date and he expects a record Put.

No Pot Luck Sunday—Substituting for this regular event will be the Buffet Dinner prepared by the Elks Lodge for the participating golfers.

School News By Doris Matheson "B" Club At a regular meeting of the "B" Club Monday night, as a wind up of football season Led Burke was elected Captain of the Year.

The "B" Club passed new laws holding themselves responsible for the prevention of using firecrackers around the school. (Those going off in the library Monday night did create some excitement.)

Once again plans are under way for a New Year's Dance this year. This dance will also celebrate the second anniversary of the organization.

The second week in January is approximately when these lucky guys expect to receive their letters for their outstanding sportsmanship. Minor letters will be awarded to those who didn't quite make the list.

 Home Nursing classes in three Palm Beach County schools, under the supervision of the County Red Cross chapter, were started last week, according to Mrs. R. E. Branch, nursing service chairman.

The six weeks courses, Mrs. Branch said, were started at Seacrest High School, Lake Worth High School and Palm Beach High School. The first ten hours of the course, she said, will be taught by the first school's home economic teacher. Nursing instructors assigned to the final 20 hours of the course are Mrs. Lillian Smith, Seacrest; Mrs. Helen Moore, Lake Worth; and Mrs. Gladys Ogden, Palm Beach High School. Red Cross nursing courses are already underway at Industrial High School and at Vocational High School in Palm Beach. Mrs. Julian Rowley is instructing at Industrial High School and Mrs. Lloyd Clanton is the instructor at the Vocational school.

NEW PRESBYTERIAN

 co-incident in the calling and coming of Rev. Graham to Belle Glade, it is when Rev. Phillips left the pastorate to go to Fort Lauderdale, he gave the Session a list of likely ministers, and included the name of Rev. Graham as a reference to secure information. Watson wrote the minister not as a reference but as a possible minister. To the surprise, Rev. Graham wrote back a rather favorable reply that it might possibly be arranged, and it was consummated.

Rev. Graham, if Sunday's sermon were a sample of his type of preaching, made a most favorable impression. He is a free speaker, able to move an audience at his will, and had enough homely homily in his addresses that retained the attention of all. He is a mighty plain speaker and holds nothing back against fighting Satan and present day evils.
 The Presbyterian church has fitted up the manse in a comfortable manner for the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, and they are now at home there. The Session has announced that Sunday evening service will be held at the manse instead of the Everglades theatre until further notice, but other activities will be continued at the theatre.

EXECUTIVE BOARD OF PTA REPORT ON ACTIVITIES

 Mrs. G. R. Townsend, Library committee chairman, stated that the money allocated to the library would be used to purchase a new world encyclopedia. It was decided to add some new shelves in the library and do some new book binding.

glanced that anybody, no matter how good a worker, may become the victim of unemployment and that it is to the good of everyone concerned for provision to be made against this occurrence.
 Those who draw unemployment compensation in Florida are not "losers." In order to be eligible for their payments it is mandatory for those out of jobs to file an application with the State Employment Service and to be "available for work" at all times. The Employment Service makes every effort to place the unemployed in jobs and insists that those on its list regularly report to the local office.

Neither the unemployed nor the citizenry as a whole is getting the benefit it should from our system of unemployment compensation under the present level of payments. An upward revision would be to the good of all concerned.

Chip Off the Old Block—Harold Lloyd, Jr., in his first motion picture role, gets into many scrapes as his famous comedian father. The younger Lloyd has just completed the leading role in "The Spook," in which he is cast as a dry goods clerk who can't resist chasing fire engines. He tangles most frequently with the fire chief, played by Herbert Rawlinson, star of the silent screen, who here demands one of a series of explanations.

The Bean City School will conduct a Christmas program on Thursday evening, December 15, 1949. The play entitled "Christmas in Fairyland" will be presented by the whole school. The characters are: the King and Queen, Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus, two Gnomes, two Ladies in Waiting, Lord High Chamberlain, the Guards, Place Chorale, Elves, Soldiers, Jack in the Box, Dolls, and souls turned within us as we worshiped them. The Home Mission of Bean City, with Mrs. Lee as president has accepted the Prison Farms as one of their projects of spreading the gospel and going into the highways and byways doing good to all mankind. We hope that others will follow us there on Sunday afternoon from 3 until 4 o'clock. Buy your Belle Glade Herald weekly. The girl scouts are distributors.

The girl scouts are having a "Birthday Party" for all girls born in December in Troop 50. The Party will be next Monday night at school. One large cake will tell the ages combined of these scouts. The honorees are: Almarita Wilkerson, Dorothy Mae McKair, and Mattie Jean Youngblood, our Herald reporter, and Jamie Lee Jackson. Games and refreshment. The Christmas motif will be carried out. The Girl Scouts observed "Heart Sister" week, which held many surprises and gifts for each "Sister."

Consumers' Problems

By Mrs. Irene D. Lee
Mrs. Lee has done special research on this problem at Tuskegee Institute, Hampton Institute, Virginia, and Miami University, Oxford, Ohio.

Purchasing and Preparing

The Food and Nutrition Board of National Research Council developed what is often called the "Yard Stick of Good Nutrition." It consists of tables of daily allowances of specific nutrients, protein, calcium, iron, vitamins, riboflavin, and on for men and women, boys and girls, according to activity or occupation. Foods have been grouped now for many years according to body needs.

The study of the yardstick of nutrition gives us a focus upon eating enough of everything required for best possible health and best possible growth. This study removes from our minds that the individual is getting enough of the right thing to eat just so long as he does not show unmistakable signs of any classical deficiency diseases, such as beriberi, scurvy or pellagra. As a matter of fact, severe cases of nutritional surveys among school children in recent years have taught us that borderline malnutrition, as well as mild specific deficiencies, are very common.

Our aspect of the problem of bridging the gap between current knowledge and its application is that of education. The best time to start learning about the food requirements of the body and how to meet them is in childhood and the logical place is the school where most children of the community are gathered together under supervision and in an atmosphere in which learning is the order of the day. Although education alone can not solve a problem which for many children has socio-economic aspects, it is generally true that poor nutrition is not confined to those whose incomes are limited. Learning to choose grain, and enriched bread and cereals, green and yellow vegetables, milk, eggs, and fruits, and through their school work to be convinced that such foods make important contributions towards their own good health. Each pupil must know that health education is nutrition education, and vice-versa. The two go hand in hand. We must train away from liking only certain foods. Each housewife should know thoroughly the Seven Basic Foods and consider them when purchasing the family's food. Surely, John, or Sue will get the correct food in the school lunch room but that is only for one meal a day. Mother must cooperate by thoroughly educating her child as to the purchasing values, vitamin content and general preservation of these vitamins in the process of food preparation and service. School Health Bureau advises us to observe general growth and appearance which includes what happens to the eyes, eyelids, ears, nose, gums, mouth, skin, and parts of the body. They give the possible deficiency according to the signs prevalent as: hair, dry, coarse, brittle, lacking in luster; the need is vitamin A. Gums swollen, bleeding, spongy; or of abnormal color; the need is Ascorbic acid (vitamin C). General calories, all around poor unbalanced diet. Of course such things as acute or chronic illness or an endocrine imbalance which may interfere with assimilation, or utilization of essential food elements.

Convincing children of the importance of good nutrition and helping them to learn how to attain it requires teachers who are trained in nutrition and Basic Food requirements. The knowledge of how much one must or should eat to retain health is knowledge that must be acquired. In the near future teachers will be required to include nutrition in their professional courses that they can be most efficient guides for the many children they teach daily. Malnutrition and its causes will be treated in our next article to better acquaint the public with what is needed to help this group overcome the scourge of this unfortunate malady.

Included with be the Vitamin Content for the Basic Foods.

OBSERVATIONS
in the city who did not desire that city interests be protected, and that offenders against the public law be brought to justice, and there are precesses of law which provide for both actions.

If local nincoms found more quail in the fields this fall than usual, part of it can be attributed to the fact that real sportsmen had picked up city bred covers of quail and removed them to the open fields.

A lodge member apprehended a friend by the name of Henry, thus, "Henry, we are having a raffle for a poor widow," said he. "Will you buy a ticket?" "Nope," said Henry, "my wife wouldn't let me keep her if I won."

An elderly woman had been to hear her nephew preach for the first time, and she thought it was a poor sermon. Later, that day she asked, "James, why did you enter the ministry?" "Because I was called," he answered. "James, if the aunt solemnly, 'are you sure it wasn't some other noise you heard?"

The memorial services which are conducted in all Elks lodges on the first Sunday of each December, is a most beautiful and impressive one, including the memory chime music and the building of the floral monument. This year, Belle Glade lodge lost four members by death, namely, Dr. William Buck, W. B. Granger and Archie Harris, and B. G. Smith.

Superintendent Howell Watkins, of the county school system, is most proud to announce that all the high schools of the county are now accredited schools, the latest to be so classified being Seacrest and Delray. Over in Hendry county the schools at Clewiston and LaBelle have also been given such classification.

The county school officials are not only plugging for better instruction and building up the school educational rating, and as funds become available are building modern school plants to properly house the 15,000 or more children who attend the schools during the year. In fact, this educational Palm Beach county ranks high in school ratings.

In the near future Belle Glade is due for a fine new high school structure, and Pahokee will be given expansion in its present facilities. South Bay people are looking forward when they can have new buildings for both the white and colored schools.

Nature has a way of inflicting heavy damages, and likewise has great powers of recuperation, especially in this rich Glades area. Our growing crops were given a severe frost and freezing blast, but now two weeks later, the picture of such losses, has almost passed from the end of the salvaging of beans which had escaped frost damage. The present cold spell has aided the more hardy cabbage and celery which now enter the shipping stage.

With workless days, the need for food for the tables, each day can note large numbers of the negroes going out on fishing trips to the canals. What they carry home in the way of fish helps supply the table food.

The former Fifth street colored school building is disappearing and it will be completely razed within the coming week. It was a landmark in the colored section of our city, but it answered its purpose over a long period of time. The new Lake Shore school is a long advance over the Fifth street school. The colored people are making every endeavor to show appreciation for this school, and are mighty thankful for it.

If you are looking for information as to how severe the recent freeze was in these parts, just go up to the local air field and see how the former luxurious green grass has been burned to a deep and seared brown.

The Glades during the past twelve years has always been a hot football center, and the Pahokee and Belle Glade schools have turned out some nifty star players. One might not deem that football would be of special benefit to the players for mental improvement or a possible livelihood for the future. Yet, when we look what Tom Boynton, H. B. Baxter, Kenneth Dell, Calvin Peacock did on collegiate teams where they had been given educational scholarships, we know that they did profit by their athletic prowess. Dell and Peacock are both teachers and coaches in our county schools.

Carroll McDonald a local star is at the University of Florida and Billy Jo Leathers at Rollins, and both boys made their mark this season. Peacock, Baxter and Dell were all former stars on the Rollins college football team and they all served in military capacities during the past world war.

There are many foundations in the United States, where the rich are used for educational and philanthropic purposes and science research. Among all these the Elks Foundation, is the most unique, in that it is in no way interrelated with other public or charitable funds. Its funds are kept fluid, so that assistance may quickly be provided when and where needed. The states each have their own projects which they maintain, and Florida's big institution is the Harry-Anna Home for Crippled children at Unimilla, where around 100 children get hospital and medical care.

Some months ago, a cat came out of the grass near my home, and he looked as if he had come through a threshing machine. His head and neck were twisted, his hind legs hardly pushed him along, and he sure was a mess. Tender care by my Missus, has brought his out into a beautiful big cat. However, we discover that he had lost the sense of hearing and smelling, but otherwise is a pretty sassy feline.

And kiddies, I have watched him in his daily habits. He always says good morning when admitted to the home in the morning. He goes to his corner for his food, and if nothing is there, he immediately makes demand for his mackerel or sardines. When told what he do, he goes over and washes his face and paws and clicks up his fur, and then quietly lies down for a nap. How many of you kids, do that? From a purely "outside" cat he has become very much of an "indoor" pet. We have learned to observe that he also has strong, sharp claws. He seems to be perfectly content with the home that he picked out in a time of emergency.

The high pine trees, which follow the canals of the Glades have 50 miles or more, are the attention of the State Highway Tree trimming crew. By announcing this fact, the department, has followed suggestions by resolutions of Glades civic clubs, that such work be done, as a safety measure, and to prevent injury and egres to the section in storm periods. The Department has not as yet fully determined its plan of work on the project, as to the extent of decapitation.

Florida State Makes Tampa Bowl By Season's Fine Grid Showing

Florida State University of Tallahassee, the baby of the state's university system, hit the jackpot in its third season of intercollegiate football, gaining a berth in the Shrine Cigar Bowl game Jan. 2 against the powerful Wofford College Terriers of Spartanburg, S.C.

In two years under Coach Don Vetter, the Seminoles have won 15, lost two and tied none. Producing a winning team at Tallahassee received favor of Florida football fans, and the Seminoles have picked up a big following at the expense of their cousins at Gainesville who have Mathis-Boc.

been involved in coaching controversies for the last two decades without a winner.

Florida State University was organized in 1947, replacing Florida State College for Women which had been a girl's school since 1885. Vetter took over the coaching reins in 1948 when the Seminoles became a charter member of the New Dixie Conference, and his teams have been winning ever since.

In his first year at Florida State Vetter's team won seven games and lost only one. This year his Seminoles won eight games and lost one.

Vetter uses his own version of the cockeyed T formation originated by Bo McMillan, his coach at Indiana.

During the 1949 season the Seminoles defeated Whiting Field, Mississippi College, Erskine College, Sewanee, Stetson University, Millsaps, University of Tampa and Troy State, FSU was beaten by Livingston (Ala) State, which also has been invited to participate in a bowl game.

Charles H. Settle Monogamous Moore Haven Dies

Charles Henry Settle, who was born in Virginia 90 years ago, and who has been a highly respected and prominent citizen of Moore Haven, since 1919, died at his home in that city, on Friday, and Troy State, FSU was beaten by Livingston (Ala) State, which also has been invited to participate in a bowl game.

Settle was made at his former home in Fayetteville, W. Va., with services conducted by the Masonic lodge, and was a charter member and Past Worshipful Master of Moore Haven Masonic lodge, and a man of many appointments.

The deceased leaves the following members of his family as survivors: Mrs. Mollie Settle, the aged wife; three sons, C. E. of Charleston, W. Va., Frank, of Pryor, Oklahoma, and Carr, editor of the Democrat at Moore Haven.

What is it worth

TO YOUR FAMILY?

It takes more than arithmetic to add up the full value of the telephone when Grandmother calls up to say, "Happy Birthday" . . . when Mother wants to tell the druggist, "Rush the order, please" . . . or when Junior hears the magic words, "I'm giving a party—you're invited."

Between the calls you make and the calls you receive, the telephone is such an active partner in your daily life it's almost one of the family! Day and night, rain or shine, it serves the whole family in countless ways—running errands, spreading cheer, bringing friends and loved ones closer.

When you stop to think how much it does for you, at the price you pay, telephone service stands out as one of today's biggest bargains. And it grows bigger as the number of people you can call keeps increasing and the service becomes faster and better.
